

An alliance for freedom in memory of years forever lost

A ring for freedom,
in memory of the years lost forever.

A ring to not bury too fast
those mad years of tragic wars.

A ring to remember constantly
the sacrifice of these heroic men and women.

Some fought for an ideal, freedom,
others by submitting to the most senseless orders.

Whether they are called Harry POTTER or Samy CAREY, their infinite names follow each other by thousands in this place of peace.

They might be German, American, English, Belgian, Canadian, New Zealander
and it doesn't matter, of any other nationality,
their golden memory is engraved in white letters for eternity.

They are all these citizens of the world
whom we celebrate in this Notre-Dame de Lorette memorial fallen as martyrs, anonymous heroes and victims of atrocity,
to not forget so that it never should repeat again.

René ELOY © photographer
Cyril SUQUET © writer - décembre 2014