

In the shadow of the heroes in the Commonwealth cemetery of Arras

In the cold warmth of winter,
united for life,
the graves of the heroes fallen for the homeland, still watch proudly on the green meadow.

In the cold warmth of winter,
united for life,
the shadows of the past , today as yesterday, reflect on the white grave stones.

In the cold warmth of winter,
united for life unendingly, families coming from all over the Commonwealth meditate beneath the kind eye of proud rays.
